The grievance of the petitioner is that no proper further investigation is being conducted by the police in spite of Ext.P3 order passed by this court on 06/02/2007. The learned Public Prosecutor, after taking instructions, submits that the needful has already been done in pursuance of Ext.P3. After taking permission of the learned Magistrate, to conduct a further investigation, the Circle Inspector of Police, Kundara has been directed by the Superintendent of Police, Kollam to conduct a further investigation into crime No.666/2006 of Kundara police station. The Circle Inspector of Police, Kundara shall complete the investigation expeditiously and file an appropriate further report before the learned Magistrate concerned, submits and undertakes the learned Public Prosecutor.

2. In the light of the submissions of the learned Public Prosecutor, I am satisfied that no further directions are necessary in this writ petition now. The Circle Inspector of Police, Kundara shall conduct and complete the further investigation, as expeditiously as possible, at any rate, within a period of three months from this date.

3. This writ petition is accordingly dismissed but with the above observations.

Hand over copy of this order to the learned Public Prosecutor.
